Our published note to Big Picture Trading Members

December 2nd 2018

We are going to come into this week actively looking to short-sell any strength after the G20 meetings. I am suspicious that the strength will be faded. Any SPY shorts will need to be done in Hedged Position Trades as we will likely need to hold into January to see a real turn play out. The 2800- 2850 is a very high interest area to start short-selling the market.
