The Cook Report – (August 25) Charlie Cook: Many Are Afraid To Say It, but This Is Not a Close Race

I think about the story in the context of this election, but not in a way that compares Trump to the king. Rather, I think about it in terms of the political analysts, pollsters, and pundits who refuse to state publicly what the data plainly show: that it is very, very unlikely Trump will win 270 electoral votes and the election.
